Aniak:

Here in Aniak one of the elective classes is about Yupik Studies. The Yupik Studies elective class is currently trying to raise money so they can get fabric and trim to make their own matching qaspeqs for every student in the elective class. In the elective class they have written letters to most local businesses for donations of money or anything to use to raise money. The businesses the class has written to are Bush-Tell, Aniak Traditional Council, Donlin Gold, Ravn, Alaska Airlines, and AC. The teachers also started a Go Fund Me -program and raised 200 dollars using the Go Fund Me program. The Yupik Studies class is also planning projects to make to honor the veterans on this upcoming Veterans Day.

Chu:

In Chuathbaluk on September 15, 2017 Crow Village Sam School went on a berry picking trip on one of their culture days. On the current culture days for Crow Village Sam School students get a chance to sew, bead, paint, and Eskimo dance. They are now planning their Halloween carnival that they plan to have on October 27th.
